

TO REACH PEACE WE NEED TO TEACH PEACE!

Peace education is a comprehensive and holistic participatory process that includes teaching and learning for and about human rights, non-violence, social and economic justice, gender equality, environmental sustainability, disarmament, international law, human security and traditional peace practices.

This collection of sixteen lessons, from Albania, Cambodia, Philippines, Kenya, India, Nepal, US, Catalunya (Spain) and South Africa, is based on the Hague Agenda for Peace and Justice for the 21st Century (UN Ref. A/54/98) They should be adoptable and adaptable to any culture and will serve to stimulate values and skills for a culture of peace. Included are suggested guidelines on how to make a peace lesson.

Additional peace lessons will be available with our online-edition at www.haguepeace.org

The 144-page Peace Lessons book follows our previous publications, both of which are available online: Learning to Abolish War: Teaching Toward a Culture of Peace, by B. Reardon and A. Cabezudo and Peace and Disarmament Education, changing mindsets to sustain the removal of small arms, Gloria Levitas, editor.

To order Peace Lessons from Around the World, please email hap@haguepeace.org or mail/fax the form below

US$25 per book, includes shipping charge.
Checks should be payable to Hague Appeal for Peace.

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Country: _____

Postal Code: _____ Email: _____

Number of copies: _____ Total Price: _____

Hague Appeal for Peace, 777 United Nations Plaza, 3rd Floor, New York City, N.Y. 10017
Fax: (+1) 212-661-2704